Unless for unforeseen reasons or due to a holiday, the North Central WV Labor Council, AFL-CIO conducts a 6:30pm meeting either in person or by conference call on the 3rd Thursday of each month. Please contact CLC President Steve Perdue for meeting info @ 304-203-8744.

Affiliated Local Unions in good standing shall be entitled to active and or retired representation based on per capita tax paid to the West Virginia AFL-CIO and according to the following schedule: 50 members or less -- 2 delegates / 51-100 members -- 3 delegates / 101-200 members -- 4 delegates / 201-400 members -- 5 delegates / 401-700 members -- 6 delegates -- 701-1,100 members -- 7 delegates. One delegate for each additional 500 members or any fraction thereof, above 1,100.

NOTE: When Local Unions choose CLC representation, active members should be given preference over retired members.

A union retiree club/chapter shall be admitted as an affiliate of the Council with one (1) delegate. Where two or more union retiree clubs/chapters desire to affiliate with the Council and are eligible to do so, that affiliation shall be through a council of union retiree clubs/chapters. A Union Retiree Council shall be entitled to three (3) delegates, regardless of the number of union retiree clubs/chapters within the Union Retiree Council.

Constituency groups that are approved and recognized by the AFL-CIO, including the Alliance for Retired Americans (ARA) shall be entitled to one (1) delegate.
